

Wisconsin has tough legislation when it comes to telemarketing. The consumer protection afforded by the Wisconsin No Call List has been very successful. Please don't give in to those such as the Consumer Banking Association that want to weaken the laws and infringe on consumer rights. Stand up for the consumer and not for big business.